About Regenesys

We are a Business School with heart and soul, where cognitive, emotional, and spiritual (being purpose-driven) intelligences are developed and lived. We produce holistic leaders equipped to deal with the emerging challenges of a Fourth Industrial Revolution World. We take a long-term lifecycle approach to delivering value to our students. Regenesys is in the heart of Sandton, but it has a global footprint. We serve leaders, managers and citizens who acknowledge, and take responsibility for the impacts of strategies, policies, decisions, actions, products, services and associated performance on people, the environment and the commercial viability of their organisations, in both public and private sector. Our campuses in Sandton and Lagos give us unique insight into global business education that aims to comprehensively transform leaders and organisations. In line with our holistic and integrated approach, Regenesys offer our students and clients comprehensive services through the following subsidiaries:

Dananda Talent Management offers placement assistance services and career support to all our graduates; when they graduate and as their careers take off. Our alumni use Dananda as their recruiter of choice for the organisations they lead.

MyWealth Investments: The financial needs of our graduates are taken care of by MyWealth; an authorised financial services provider. MyWealth provides training in managing personal finances as well as the management of investment portfolios, and retirement planning.

The Regenesys Foundation is the philanthropic arm of Regenesys Business School. The Foundation secures donations to make quality online and contact business education available to those who cannot afford it. Alumni make significant contributions to its programmes. The Regenesys Alumni Association provides a platform for fellowship, networking and maximising graduates' investment in education.

The BRICS Institute aims to promote business development within the BRICS countries through an executive leadership programme.

Each of our business units integrate to provide comprehensive and continuous support and assistance to our graduates as they grow their experience and expand their careers. We are unique in the way we incorporate cognitive, emotional and spiritual intelligences into leadership that aims to not only transform knowledge, but all behaviours and attitudes.

Mode of Delivery-ONLINE

Our learning programmes are designed on a dynamic, technically advanced and user-friendly platform and a highly functional and advanced student portal. We aim to transform and inspire your mind, heart and soul, helping you to develop the knowledge, skills, positive values, attitudes and behaviours required for success.

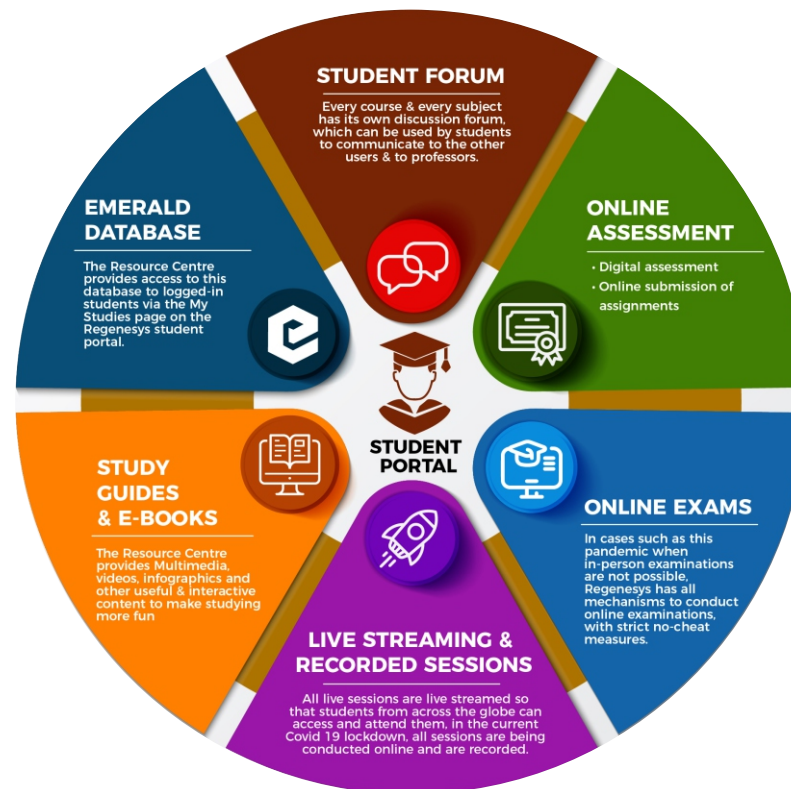

The Big Blue Button is a Moodle plugin that enables the facilitation of online sessions synchronously. It is an impressive system where the facilitator can live stream and record a session from her/his laptop while engaging with students on real-time basis.

Virtual breakaway groups can be formed where students can interact with each other via video, audio and chats. Students can deliver their presentations in virtual plenary and students can ask them questions. All Notes, slides, recordings, white board notes, chats can be shared while the facilitator is facilitating.

Students can also participate in online polls to gauge their opinions. Our facilitators are well trained to use Big Blue Button and are excited to use this to continue to provide education to Regenesys Students.
